their work. What they found were four artists that are fully intertwined in sports culture: Saladeen once rang the bell at the 76ers game, Tsai partnered with the League for their 75th anniversary, Timmy Sneaks has murals around The Town and De Guzman has worked with the Bulls for NBA All-Star in 2020.

“It was important to make sure that the artists love the sport,” Richardson says.

“All these artists bet on themselves. Being an artist is not an easy way to live and... being a part of sports and connecting that
